Sir:

The following references have been noted in foreign and other searches on this and related subject matter. While many of these documents were first noted in a foreign counterpart and were brought to the attention of applicant and his attorney within the last three months, some that were found in earlier searches were inadvertently not previously submitted.

Consequently, this document is submitted under Rule 97C2 and the fees under Rule 17(P) of $180 is submitted herewith.

Translations of the foreign documents to English are enclosed where such are available. Where no translation is available, the relevance of the reference is believed to be found in the drawings.
